SCHOOL NEWS

East Group Cross Country
We were incredibly proud of the Pokeno School team who competed in the East Group Cross Country races last Friday. The weather was perfect but the farm at Mangatangi was the wettest and muddiest Mr J has seen it in the last eight years. The Mangatangi School Principal recommended that the children run in barefeet as it was unlikely they would come back with two shoes if they didn’t!

Well done to all of the runners…results from the day:

Year 4 Boys – Cooper 5th, Strummer 7th, Caleb 9th
Year 5 Boys – Ezekiel 2nd
Year 5 Girls – Ellie 1st, Zara 2nd
Year 6 Boys – Joziah 3rd
Year 6 Girls – Danelle 1st, Jordyn 2nd, Jessie 3rd, Kayla 4th
Year 7 Boys – Reuben 4th, Liam 6th
Year 7 Girls – Holly 2nd, Armani 4th
Year 8 Boys – Alex 5th, Noah 8th

Not all of the runners above will go through to Franklin. Those children selected to represent East Group at Franklin next week will get a notice this week. We wish them well for next Wednesday.

Lost Property
We still have a large amount of unnamed and unclaimed lost property at school. Please be aware that this will be donated to a charity at the end of this week. Teachers have taken classes to view it and new items found are taken to all classes daily. However with so many items unnamed the pile continues to increase. All lost property is currently displayed outside Room’s 6 and 7.
